

Prepaid Products

Buy today and ship when you're ready, with convenient, easy-to-use prepaid products

A company that plans for the future is much more likely to be here in the future. That's why prepaid products from Canada Post are ideal for your business. You can buy in advance and ship when you're ready—in Canada, to the U.S. or around the world.

Buy now. Ship anytime.

With Canada Post flat-rated, postage-included prepaid products, you can stock up now and have them available for shipping anytime. Choose from Priority™ and Xpresspost™ services, and realize the many benefits.

Save time and effort with a convenient and easy-to-use solution

Have your package picked up at your convenience or drop it off at any post office when you're ready. With the Xpresspost service, you may even drop it in any Canada Post's street letter box.

Choose the size and format that fit your business needs

Prepaid products are available in a range of envelope formats (Standard, Letter and Pack), including cushion envelopes and labels—to accommodate YOUR specific sending requirements.

Avoid unnecessary surcharges

Prepaid envelopes are delivered to any address in Canada, including PO boxes and rural routes, with no surcharges for deliveries to residential addresses or extended delivery areas.

Immunize your business against rising costs

With flat-rated prepaid products on hand, even if prices increase, your shipping expenses won't. And with no hidden fees, you always know your shipping costs up front, which is great for budget planning.

Create the perception of importance of the shipment

Prepaid products imply that the contents are valuable, which can help get your envelopes noticed, opened and responded to faster.

Opt for a green shipping solution

Our prepaid shipping envelopes are made of environmentally-sustainable materials, featuring recycled content and a Zerofootprint certification.
