Your source for new Canadian stamps

Dear Collectors

To sending hope and help

Like all Canadians, we have watched the tragedy unfold as the people of Ukraine have faced relentless, unconscionable and indiscriminate attacks by Russian forces. Like you, we have searched for ways to send strength and support to the millions of people whose lives have been devastated by this brutal and senseless war.

On July 7, Canada Post will issue a semi-postal fundraising stamp to give us all another way to show our care and compassion for the men, women and children of Ukraine. A portion of the sales from each booklet of stamps – which feature an image of a radiant sunflower, an enduring symbol of Ukraine – and Official First Day Cover will go to on-the-ground efforts to provide humanitarian aid.

We may be far away, but our hearts and minds are with Ukraine during this time of need.

Bronwyn Graves, Director, Stamp Services

Recognizing the generosity of Canadians in times of need, Canada Post has issued a semi-postal fundraising stamp to offer our customers and collectors an opportunity to support those impacted by the Russian invasion of Ukraine. Funds raised through the purchase of this stamp will be distributed through the Canada-Ukraine Foundation. A donation of $1 from each booklet of 10 stamps (and 10 cents from each Official First Day Cover) will provide much needed financial assistance to those affected by the situation.

Canada and Ukraine share a historic bond. The first wave of Ukrainian immigrants began to arrive in the 1890s, and Canada was the first Western country to recognize Ukraine's independence in 1991. Today, nearly 4% of Canadians can trace their roots to Ukraine.

The sunflower, the national flower of Ukraine, has now become a widely recognized symbol of peace and unity and is a fitting image for this special stamp. The bright yellow flower can be seen throughout Ukraine, including as adornment in the vinok, the traditional floral headdress. The colourful stamp, originally issued in 2011, was designed and photographed by Isabelle Toussaint Design graphique. The new booklet and Official First Day Cover were designed by H el ene L'Heureux.

Vintage Carousels

Issue date: July 21, 2022

Booklet of 10 stamps
414192111
$9.20

Can you smell the cotton candy? Do you hear the barkers in the midway daring you to test your game skills? This five-stamp issue featuring vintage carousels from across Canada is designed to bring you back to the summer fun of your youth.

From their origins as a military training game in the 12th century, carousels had evolved by the mid-19th century to the mechanically powered fairground ride we still enjoy today. The five carousels featured, with their elaborately carved and painted animals and cheery band organ music, demonstrate both high artisan craftsmanship and impressive technological advances for their era.

The Lakeside Park Carousel, residing at Lakeside Park, in St. Catharines, Ontario, since 1921, still costs only a nickel to ride.

A rare three-row track machine, the Bowness Carousel arrived at the Heritage Park Historical Village, in Calgary, Alberta, in 1969.

Arriving in Canada in 1936, the C.W. Parker Carousel No. 119 has been a popular attraction at the Burnaby Village Museum, in Burnaby, British Columbia, since 1993.

The only Canadian carousel to receive the National Carousel Association Historic Carousel Award (in 2010), the Roseneath Carousel has been the pride of the Roseneath Fairgrounds, in Roseneath, Ontario, since 1932.

Le Galopant has been entertaining guests at La Ronde amusement park in Montréal, Quebec, since 2007. Originally powered by steam, the late 19th-century Belgian carousel first arrived in Canada to be part of Expo 67.

The issue was designed by Paprika and illustrated by René Milot in a whimsical style reminiscent of turn-of-the-century carnival and circus posters.
