

THE HOLIDAY FLEET'S HOLIDAY ADVENTURE

'Twas the holiday season,
crisp, cold, and clear.
Dasher rolled forward carrying wintertime cheer.

A bit further North
on a wintery night,
Dancer headed out
'neath magical light.

Then spotted about
where the icy winds blow, Prancer delivered parcels where few travellers go.

In a beautiful old city with freshly frosted lanes, Vixen was seen delivering next to bright window panes.

Far off in another great city
making a westernly drive,
with packages nestled neatly,
Comet safely arrived.

With buildings in the distance
and city lights aglow, Cupid drove on merrily
with more deliveries to go.

Carrying big holiday wishes packed safely in back, Donner trotted along a snowy covered track.

From coast to coast to coast,
as the sun was sinking low, Blitzen blinked by a lighthouse with a warm, steady glow.

And finally came Rudolph shining brightly along,
climbing foothills and mountains
all holiday season long.

And as the season drew on with headlights shining so bright.
The Holiday Fleet gathered for one truly magical night.

Happy Holidays to all,
and to all a safe drive!
