

Meet Generation Z

Four key takeaways for engaging the next generation of online shoppers

Born between 1995 and 2008, consumers in Generation Z (Gen Zers) are just starting to come of age – yet they're already reimagining the shopping experience with a deep emphasis on connectivity and purpose. Check out how this generation differs from their elder peers and glean insight into how to engage this up-and-coming group of shoppers.

1. Tap into the power of social media

To learn about new brands and products, Gen Zers often, almost always or always consult:

Social media sites

Gen Z 33%

Millennials 23% Gen X 11% Boomers 6%

Blogs

Gen Z

22%

Millennials 21% Gen X 13% Boomers 10%

Social media influencers

Gen Z 22%

Millennials 17%
Gen X 7%
Boomers 3%

Online video

Gen Z 26%

Millennials	21%
Gen X	12%
Boomers	8%

2. Get crystal clear about your purpose and values

Before buying from a retailer, Gen Zers consider the retailer's values, including whether it:

Protects the environment

20% Gen Z

15% Millennials

12% Gen X

11% Boomers

Carries sustainably and/or ethically sourced products

18% Gen Z

12% Millennials

8% Gen X

8% Boomers

Treats its employees well

19% Gen Z

14% Millennials

12% Gen X

11% Boomers

Is owned/operated by BIPOC individuals

12% Gen Z

9% Millennials

6% Gen X

4% Boomers

3. Keep pace with checkout innovations

When choosing among retailers, Gen Zers look for flexible checkout options, including:

Multiple payment options (e.g., credit card, PayPal, Apple Pay, etc.)

Gen Z

Millennials 43% Gen X 36% Boomers 40% A guest checkout option (no login required)

Gen Z

Millennials 41% Gen X 33% Boomers 33%

Instant checkout for returning customers

Gen Z

Millennials 35% Gen X 26% Boomers 27% A buy now, pay later (BNPL) option

Gen Z

	1
29%	(
	E

Millennials 23% Gen X 12% Boomers 6%

4. Cement loyalty with a seamless last-mile experience

Gen Zers avoid repeat purchases from retailers for the following reasons:

Customs duties and/or taxes were too high or unexpected

58 Gen Z

57% Millennials

53% Gen X

44% Boomers

Unable to track order

38% Gen Z

36% Millennials

31% Gen X

24% Boomers

Retailer did a poor job managing expectations around delivery timing

38% Gen Z

34% Millennials

28% Gen X

25% Boomers

Estimated delivery date was not provided

38% Gen Z

37% Millennials

32% Gen X

24% Boomers

Lack of flexible delivery or pickup options

31% Gen Z

30% Millennials

26% Gen X

18% Boomers

Delivery company does not make it convenient to receive packages

31% Gen Z

29% Millennials

22% Gen X

15% Boomers

Delivery company not identified at the time of purchase

31% Gen Z

26% Millennials 20% Gen X 18% Boomers

Retailer used excessive or unnecessary packaging when shipping

29% Gen Z

27% Millennials21% Gen X18% Boomers

Retailer did not use customer's preferred delivery company

25% Gen Z

22% Millennials16% Gen X10% Boomers

Delivery company does not ensure package is secure when customer not home

33% Gen Z

26% Millennials22% Gen X17% Boomers

For more trend insights and actionable advice on how to prepare your business for the next generation of online shoppers, check out our new report, Meet Generation Z, at canadapost.ca/generationz.

