

Pricing, payment and general terms and conditions

Learning about pricing, payment and general terms and conditions ensures that you get the most out of your agreement with Canada Post.

8.1 Pricing

Pricing information for Canada Post Parcel Services is provided on price sheets, available separately.

The customer acknowledges that the base price for items shipped is determined by a number of factors, including, but not limited to:

- the service(s) selected;
- the service options selected;
- the weight of items;
- the origin and destination of the items;
- the number and location of induction points (postal facility where the items are posted);
- the volume commitment (if specified in the Agreement);
- the spend commitment (if specified in the Agreement). Without limiting section 8.3.16 (Amendments), Canada Post may increase the customer's spend commitment from time to time to reflect price increases to any of the Products and Services.

The customer acknowledges that it represents the above facts to Canada Post and that Canada Post relies upon them in determining the base price. These facts as represented to Canada Post are known as the customer's "Shipping Profile." The customer acknowledges that material changes to its Shipping Profile must be promptly communicated to Canada Post and that Canada Post may thereupon amend the base price to reflect the change(s) on thirty (30) calendar days' written Notice. Should the customer fail to communicate such change(s) to its Shipping Profile, and should Canada Post learn of it notwithstanding, Canada Post may amend the base price accordingly on thirty (30) calendar days' written Notice.

8.2 Paying for Your Mailing

8.2.1 Payment Method Options

The following describes various payment method options acceptable for payment of Parcel Services, including Priority™ Worldwide service. However, not all options may be accepted at all Canada Post facilities.

- If you have pre-approved credit terms, you may elect "ACCOUNT" as a method of payment. The mailing will then be invoiced and charged to your account and applicable credit terms will apply. See section 8.2.1.1 "Pre-Approved Credit Terms – Account" for details.
- Customers who do not qualify for credit terms must provide full payment at non-discounted prices at the time of mailing. Otherwise, the mailing will not be accepted. See section 8.2.1.6 "Payment at Time of Mailing – No Credit Terms" for details.

8.2.1.1 Pre-Approved Credit Terms – Account

8.2.1.2 Use of "ACCOUNT"

Customers with pre-approved credit terms may elect "ACCOUNT" as a method of payment. The mailing is to be invoiced and charged to the customer's account and applicable credit terms will apply. Following approval by Canada Post and continued credit worthiness as determined by Canada Post, at its discretion, credit terms of net fifteen (15) calendar days from date of invoice will apply.

2.1 Invoice

If "ACCOUNT" was selected to pay for a mailing, Canada Post will provide the customer with an invoice that summarizes the charges posted to the customer's account. The charges reflected on the invoice are a summary of the mailings/orders (Manifests/Bills of Lading) that a customer has submitted to Canada Post with the following exception:

Customers who elect to pay for services by credit card will not receive an invoice. However, Canada Post does provide details for credit card transactions through the epost™ service. Visit epost.ca to sign up for the epost service or for more details on this service. For more information on "CREDIT CARD" as a payment option, see section 8.2.1.7 Credit Card. Customers should advise the Credit Management Group at 1-800-267-7651 of any discrepancies. Invoice/billing discrepancies must be brought to Canada Post's attention within 90 calendar days of the date of the invoice, after which time such invoice will be deemed accepted by the customer.

In the event that Canada Post is requested to respond to any invoicing discrepancy initiated by, (i), the customer or, (ii), any third-party on behalf of customer within the period mentioned above, Canada Post reserves the right to charge the customer an adjustment and/or investigation fee(s) (the investigation fees will apply in cases where Canada Post determines that disputed charges were correctly calculated on the original invoice). Canada Post reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to refuse a request for a refund or credit of shipping charges for any shipment, when such request is made by any party other than the payer of the shipping charges.

A list of account administration fees is available upon customer request by contacting the Credit Management Group.

Customers can access a copy of their invoice through our free online service. See section 8.2.1.5 "Manage My Accounts" for further information.

2.2 Account Settlement

Accounts may be settled using one of the following:

- pre-authorized bank payment;
- pre-authorized credit card payment, upon Canada Post's approval;
- online payment;
- payment by cheque or money order.

Customers wishing to sign up for pre-authorized or online payment need to complete and submit the applicable form, which can be obtained at canadapost.ca/caf or from a Canada Post representative.

Cheques or money orders must be made payable to "Canada Post Corporation," include the Canada Post Customer Number and be accompanied by the remittance information. Payment must be sent to the following address:

8.2.1.3 Past-Due Amounts and Administration Fees

3.1 Late Payment

Past-due amounts will be subject to a late payment fee. The late payment fee will be calculated at a rate of 1.5 per cent per month (18 per cent per annum). Canada Post may amend the late payment fee rate at any time upon Notice to the customer.

MoneyGram

If an amount becomes past due, Canada Post may elect to apply any money otherwise received from the customer or any money due to the customer by Canada Post toward bad debts first. Such right of set-off shall be without prejudice and in addition to any other rights Canada Post may have. No interest will be paid by Canada Post on any funds held in the customer's account.

3.2 Account Administration Fees

Return Payments

An administrative fee will be applied on any payment that is dishonoured for any reason, including a payment returned due to Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF). The customer agrees to reimburse Canada Post for all costs, including legal fees and bank charges, incurred as a result of late or dishonoured payments.

Document Copies

Customers requiring duplicate copies of invoices may access them through our free online service. See section 8.2.1.5 "Manage My Accounts" for further information. Requests for duplicate invoices or other documentation (for example, Bills of Lading, Manifests and packing slips) fulfilled through our account management group are subject to service fees for items up to six months from their creation date. Additional fees will be charged for items older than six months, if available.

Corrections

Customers requiring corrections to orders or invoices or customers transmitting invalid or late electronic orders, where Canada Post is not responsible, are subject to additional service fees.

Investigations

In the event Canada Post is requested to investigate invoice discrepancies (including, but not limited to service guarantee failures), Canada Post may apply an additional fee for the number of disputed items submitted that Canada Post has investigated and determined to be correctly charged as originally invoiced.

Canada Post reserves the right to amend administration fees at any time without prior notification. A list of account administration fees is available upon customer request by contacting the Credit Management Group at 1-800-267-7651.

8.2.1.4 Statement of Account

A Statement of Account will be provided monthly to the customers if the customer used their account to pay for their mailing. Such a Statement of Account will summarize each of the invoices processed, and any related adjustments and payments made during the month as well as any balance owing at the end of the month.

8.2.1.5 Manage My Accounts

You can manage your accounts at canadapost.ca. Contact the Credit Management Group at 1-800-267-7651 to do so. Once you have access, you will be able to view the status of your accounts and make payments online.

8.2.1.6 Payment at Time of Mailing – No Credit Terms

6.1 Payment Method Options at Time of Mailing

For customers without pre-approved credit terms, full payment at non-discounted prices, at the time of mailing, must be made by:

- certified business cheque (payment by uncertified business cheque is subject to approval by Canada Post);
- cash (post offices only);
- money order;
- credit card (some conditions apply); see section 8.2.1.7 "Credit Card";
- debit card (some conditions apply);
- supplier account.

Note: All payment options may not be acceptable at all Canada Post facilities.

8.2.1.7 Credit Card

Visa™, MasterCard™ and American Express™ credit cards may be available as a method of payment option:

- when Canada Post Electronic Shipping Tools (EST) are used and the customer chooses "CREDIT CARD"; the credit card will be charged at the time of mailing;
- as set out in the Canada Postal Guide or other material published by Canada Post and of general application to Canada Post's customers, as amended from time to time.

Note:

- c) Credit cards are accepted at Canada Post facilities only where credit card authorization facilities are available.

3.6 Use of Marks and Indemnification Obligation:

Except as specifically provided for in this Agreement, no party shall use any trademarks, trade names, official marks and any other rights of another party ("the Marks") without the prior written authorization of such other party. If the Agreement is terminated for contravention of this privilege, then, in addition to any amounts otherwise due, the customer shall pay to Canada Post an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid or payable for all items mailed up to the date of termination and the amount that would have been payable for that volume, at current undiscounted prices, that would have been payable, but for this Agreement.

8.3.5 Criteria for Qualification

5.1 The customer is responsible for ensuring that all Items comply with the requirements set out in this Agreement and, except for Priority Worldwide services, the Canada Post Corporation Act and Regulations; and, for international Items, the Universal Postal Union (UPU) requirements and any receiving postal administration or designated operator requirements and the laws of the country of destination, all as may be amended from time to time. In the event that an Authorized User ceases to be an Affiliate, Subsidiary or a franchisee of the customer, the customer shall give Notice to Canada Post within thirty (30) calendar days of such change in relationship.

9.4 The customer is responsible for the compliance by each Authorized User with this Agreement. In the event that an Authorized User fails to pay for Products or Services provided under this Agreement, the customer shall pay the amount owing.

postage for delivery of the items. The customer shall require the Third Party to abide by the Agreement and the actions taken by the Third Party are deemed to be the actions of the customer.

11.2 The customer may terminate the Third-Party Pickup and Delivery service upon thirty (30) calendar day written Notice to Canada Post.

8.3.12 Resale or Interlining

12.1 The customer agrees that any Products and Services purchased under this Agreement are for the customer's own use as an end user or for the use of an Authorized User. Unless otherwise expressly permitted by Canada Post, the customer will not sell or permit the resale of any services or supplies received from Canada Post, nor use the Products and Services offered under this Agreement for the purposes of interlining. Interlining is the process in which a carrier uses another carrier's transportation service in the course of a continuous freight movement.

8.3.13 Assignment

13.1 The customer shall not assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of Canada Post, and any purported assignment without prior consent is void. Canada Post may assign the benefits of this Agreement or make any arrangements that would result in the performance, in whole or in part, of the obligations of Canada Post under this Agreement by a person other than Canada Post.

13.2 If the customer amalgamates, merges or enters into a similar business combination with any other entity, including, without limitation, by means of (a) acquisition of all or substantially all of the assets of another entity; or (b) the sale of all or substantially all of the assets to another party, then, for the purpose of this Agreement, such amalgamation, merger or combination will be deemed to be an assignment requiring the prior written consent of Canada Post.

- h) all as may be amended from time to time.

14.2 Without limiting the generality of the above, in the event of any inconsistency between this Agreement and any document other than the Canada Post Corporation Act or its Regulations, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail and be interpreted in the order of priority listed above.

14.3 No representations, warranties, negotiations or conditions, either verbal or written, will bind the parties except as expressly set out in this Agreement. Except as set out in section 8.3.15 "Waiver," no agent or representative of either party to this Agreement has authority to alter the provisions of this Agreement, and any such purported alteration shall not be binding.

8.3.15 Waiver

15.1 Except as specifically stated in this Agreement, no waiver or amendment of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the appropriate party's authorized representative. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall constitute a continuing waiver, unless otherwise expressly provided. Acceptance of Items for mailing shall not constitute a waiver by Canada Post of the customer's obligations under this Agreement.

8.3.16 Amendments

16.1 Canada Post reserves the right to modify, discontinue Products or Services, or otherwise amend this Agreement, including prices, by giving the customer thirty (30) calendar days' written Notice as specified in this Agreement.

16.2 Canada Post reserves the right to amend the Canada Postal Guide without Notice to the customer.

17.1 The termination or expiry of this Agreement will not affect the survival and enforceability of any provision of this Agreement that is expressly or implicitly intended to remain in force after such termination or expiry.

8.3.18 Severability

18.1 If any part of the Agreement is unenforceable or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such part shall be severable from the remainder of the Agreement, and its unenforceability or invalidity shall not affect the enforceability or validity of the remaining parts of the Agreement.

8.3.19 Governing Law

19.1 This Agreement is made subject to and in accordance with the Canada Post Corporation Act (the "Act"), R.S.C. 1985, c. C-10, as amended from time to time, and any of the Regulations, which are or may be from time to time made under the Act.

19.2 If the customer's address is not in a Canadian province or territory, this Agreement shall be governed by, and interpreted under, the laws in force in the province of Ontario, Canada. The forum for any legal proceedings shall be the province of Ontario, Canada.

8.3.20 Excusable Delay

20.1 Except for the customer's payment obligations, neither party shall be liable to the other for any failure to perform, or delay in the performance of, any obligation under the Agreement due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, epidemics, labour disruptions, failures or fluctuations in electrical power, heat, light, air conditioning or telecommunications equipment or lines, or other equipment if applicable, delays caused by customs authorities, provided that the party experiencing such circumstances immediately notifies the other party in writing of the circumstances and minimizes, to the extent reasonably practicable, the impact of such circumstances on the performance of the obligations under the Agreement.

8.3.21 Limitation of Liability

21.1 Canada Post reserves the right to independently review and verify any and all claims made by the customer arising from missed delivery and/or service commitments.

- c) Canada Post shall have no liability for damage of shipments containing Fragile Items. Fragile Items include but are not limited to ceramic, glass, porcelain, mirrors, crystal, pottery, china, perishable items or items requiring refrigeration or temperature-controlled transportation.
- d) Canada Post shall have no liability for damage of shipments containing Electronic Goods that are shipped in any packaging other than:
- the manufacturer's original packaging, which is undamaged and has retained its intended shape and strength;
 - packaging that abides by Canada Post's packaging guidelines (refer to ABCs of Mailing of the Canada Postal Guide at canadapost.ca/postalguide for more details on packaging guidelines); or
 - Canada Post's packaging for the shipment of electronics, including, but not limited to tablets and smartphones.
- e) Canada Post shall have no liability for loss of data stored on any type of storage medium, device or vehicle, whether or not contained within an Electronic Good; Canada Post's liability will be limited to the replacement cost of the storage medium, device or vehicle and not the value of its content.
- f) Canada Post shall not be held responsible by the customer and the customer waives all right of action against Canada Post for any loss or damage arising from, or in connection with, Canada Post's acceptance of a monetary instrument for or on behalf of the customer that is for any reason dishonoured by the issuer thereof.

21.5 Obligation to Repair, Replace or Pay Indemnity

Canada Post may, at its option, replace or repair the shipment or Item lost or damaged, or may pay the customer an indemnity as described herein.

21.6 Payment of Indemnity

If Canada Post elects to pay the customer an indemnity, Canada Post's liability is limited to paying the customer an amount equal to:

- a) the lesser of:
- i) the actual value (either the sender's cost, retail cost, repair cost, depreciated value or replacement value deemed appropriate by Canada Post); or
- ii) the amount of liability coverage purchased at the time of shipment less any compensation received by the claimant from any other source; plus
- b) shipping charges; these include base shipping fees, cubing adjustments, credit for overdeclared weight where detected and a fuel surcharge; shipping charges exclude charges for options (Signature, Signature Hard Copy, Proof of Age, Proof of Identity, Liability Coverage, Collect on Delivery [COD] and Pickup Services).

No payment will be made for any expense incurred by the sender or the addressee in submitting a claim for a payment. No interest is payable on any claim payment.

When no coverage was included or purchased and Canada Post is liable for the loss or the damage, the postage fee will be refunded. The value of the Item must be declared on the shipping documentation. All indemnity payments will be made to the sender of the Item. If a lost shipment is subsequently found after a claim has been paid, then the sender or the addressee may take delivery of the shipment, provided that Canada Post is repaid for the indemnity, and the shipment is picked up within three months from the date that Canada Post sends Notice that the shipment has been found. Canada Post reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to retain any damaged item if the indemnity is paid in full.

21.7 Blanket Exclusion From Liability

No claim shall be paid for a shipment where:

- a) Canada Post shall have no liability for loss or damage of a consequential, remote or indirect nature arising from, or in any way connected with Canada Post's failure to deliver or failure to deliver time-sensitive mailings on time. Such loss or damage shall expressly include, but shall not be limited to loss or damage arising from the mailing of tenders, proposals, court documents, or solicitations of any kind.
- b) Canada Post shall have no liability for loss, delay or damage of Items mailed to destinations outside of Canada containing prescription or non-prescription drugs, or other Items that may be subject to export or import prohibition or restriction.
- c) No claim shall be paid for a shipment where:
- i) it is sent using a Canada Post service where coverage is neither included nor purchased (except for the refund of postage per section 21.6);
- ii) in the case of Collect on Delivery (COD) shipments, the service was used for the collection of funds owed on a previous account;
- iii) a common carrier would have been exempt from legal liability;
- iv) the shipment was lost or damaged due to events not reasonably foreseeable or controllable;
- v) the shipment was of a commercial nature and was not requested;
- vi) the claim is a result of the customer's failure to comply with the requirements applicable to the service selected, including items that do not fall within our product specifications and/or not adequately packaged to ensure safe transit through our network;

- vii) the loss or damage was in respect of a shipment that contained an Item excluded from coverage;
- viii) the loss or damage was wholly or partially the fault of the sender;
- ix) the injury or damage was not a direct result of the loss, damage, delay, non-delivery or misdelivery of any mail;
- x) the shipment was delivered without any complaint or evidence of loss or damage, or insufficient evidence of loss or damage was produced; or
- xi) the addressee or sender fails to co-operate with Canada Post's investigation.

21.8 Time to Submit a Claim for Loss or Damage

A loss or damage claim must be submitted within ninety (90) calendar days of the shipping date for domestic shipments, or six (6) months of the shipping date for international shipments. Canada Post is not obligated to act on any claim until all applicable shipping charges have been paid. The first claim must be made under any insurance or other source for compensation obtained elsewhere. Canada Post is not liable to the insurer.

21.9 Making a Claim for Loss or Damage

To initiate a claim, the customer must contact the Customer Relationship Network at 1-866-607-6301 or initiate a claim online at canadapost.ca/support. The customer must provide reasonable particulars in support of a claim, including the following documentation:

- a) proof of mailing showing coverage;
- b) proof of postage and, if applicable, additional Liability Coverage obtained and paid;
- c) proof of value (documentation acceptable to Canada Post showing proof of the sender's value, either the sender's cost, retail cost, repair cost, depreciated value or replacement value as deemed appropriate by Canada Post);
- d) any non-recoverable provincial sales tax.

For claims relating to damaged shipments, upon request, the customer or addressee must make the shipment available for inspection by Canada Post. Canada Post will deny a claim for insufficient proof or for failure by an addressee or sender to co-operate with Canada Post's investigation.

21.10 On-Time Delivery Guarantee – Claims for Delay

For those services with an On-Time Delivery Guarantee against published delivery standards, Canada Post's liability for delay is limited to the equivalent replacement service or the credit of shipping charges. Shipping charges would include the base shipping fees, cubing adjustments, credit for over-declared weight where detected and a fuel surcharge, but would exclude charges for options (Signature, Signature Hard Copy, Proof of Age, Proof of Identity, Liability Coverage, Collect on Delivery [COD] and Pickup Services).

The On-Time Delivery Guarantee for all services may be cancelled, suspended or modified by Canada Post at any time without prior notice. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Canada Post reserves the right to cancel the On-Time Delivery Guarantee without notice in the event that a customer repeatedly fails to meet shipping documentation requirements.

Under the On-Time Delivery Guarantee for Priority, Xpresspost and Expedited Parcel within Canada, a claim for delay may only be submitted and will only be paid if, during a Peak Period, an item sent by one of these three services is delivered two or more business days after the published delivery standards. The start and end dates for a Peak Period will be posted to canadapost.ca/notice when available.

The guarantee is voided when customers are non-compliant with our specifications and requirements including but not limited to barcode label quality and incomplete or incorrect addressing data, shipments that require special handling, such as items that are non-standard in size, dimension or packaging including cylindrical mailing tubes, oversized or unpackaged items (see sections 6.1 Maximum and minimum sizes and weights and 6.5 Shipping charges and weight). The guarantee will be voided for Xpresspost – USA and Xpresspost – International when the shipping label is incomplete or illegible. Failure to comply may result in the item being returned to the sender for proper completion or could result in delays, non-delivery, voided delivery guarantees, if applicable, fines and customs seizure at the international destination. If your item bears a tracking number that was used on a previous shipment, the item will be returned to the sender.

The guarantee is based on the service provided from the time of pickup or acceptance of the Item by Canada Post to the time the delivery was first attempted. The guarantee does not apply in the case of delay or non-delivery caused by an event beyond the control of Canada Post, including, but not limited to, inclement weather, acts of God, epidemics, acts of terrorism, acts of war, flight delays or cancellations, riots, strikes, Customs or other regulatory authorities, or the act or default of the customer. A claim for delay must be initiated by calling Canada Post's Customer Relationship Network at 1-866-607-6301 or by creating an online service ticket at canadapost.ca/parcelsupport within thirty (30) Business Days from the delivery standard date according to the latest published Canada Post delivery standards. The customer may be required to provide proof of the acceptance of the Item by Canada Post. Canada Post is the sole source of performance data for making calculations for payment. Refer to this Customer Guide, or visit canadapost.ca/deliverystandards for details on Delivery Standards.

The On-Time Delivery Guarantee for the Xpresspost and Expedited Parcel services does not apply when shipping items from or to Air Stage offices. The Priority service is not available for shipping items from or to Air Stage offices.

Refer to Priority Worldwide Service Terms and Conditions at canadapost.ca/priorityworldwide/terms for details and limitations on the Priority Worldwide Money-Back Guarantee.
